

The Board at its meeting of August 19, 2014 adopted the recommendation in the staff report, as follows:

“It is recommended that the Board approve the public art concept for the new Glencairn Station skylight, as described in this report”.