

1. The Board received a confidential verbal update on this item: and
2. Authorized that the information provided in the confidential verbal update is to remain confidential in its entirety as it contains information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege.